When would you like us to come out for the Unit Visitation?

Please remember that at least 50% of the active Scouts on your charter must be present to hold an election.

I would also like to request that you have ballots made up, two for each boy that will be in attendance, with all the names of the eligible Scouts and their address, rank, and phone number.

(Wait for Scoutmaster to acknowledge or agree to provide ballots)

I'm looking forward to our visit. If anything should come up that you would need to contact me phone please call me at (your phone number).

Thanks,

Goodbye

Lodge Communication / Texting Information

Our Agaming Maangogwan Lodge is trying to create a mass texting blast.

If you want to join our lodge text group, please text

@ agamin to 81010

We will be sending out regular texts reminders especially prior to events.

Meeting with SM just before the meeting

What to do; Complete Forms; Etc.

Make sure you are in full Class A uniform with sash!

Remember a firm handshake and to look him/her in the eyes.

Hello, my name is (your name). I am looking for (Scoutmasters name).

(Once you are introduced to the Scoutmaster)

Thank you for hosting us this evening. If you have two minutes right now I would like to discuss the agenda for this evening.

Is your Senior Patrol Leader here yet? Who is your OA Troop Representative?
Would you like to include them in our discussion?

Would you like us to start our presentation and election process after the opening?

If it is all right with you we will present:

- Camping Information
- OA Unit of Excellence process
- Lodge texting plan
- OA Unit Elections (if you have eligible scouts)

Do you have ballots prepared for the election? (Take ballots. If he/she does not have them, you will have to make them up with information they provide you.)

How many active Scouts do you have on your roster?

So you will need at least (X number of Scouts - 50% of the active Scouts) in order to have the election. For a youth to be elected he will need votes from 50% or more of the youth in attendance. So if 14 youth show up and you have 28 or fewer active Scouts on your roster candidates will need at least 7 votes.

UNIT

ELECTIONS

Requirements
Election Procedures
Youth and Adult Forms
General Q & A
Script
Ordeal Candidate Letter

Membership Requirements

Unit Leader Approval: To become eligible for election, a Boy Scout or Varsity Scout must be registered with the Boy Scouts of America and have the approval of his unit leader prior to the election. The unit leader must certify his Scout spirit (i.e. his adherence to the Scout Oath and Law and active participation in unit activities). The unit leader must also certify that the nominee meets all specified requirements at the time of this annual election.

Youth Membership Qualifications: All members of, or candidates for membership in, the Order of the Arrow who are under 21 years of age shall be considered youth members or candidates for youth membership, subject to meeting the following requirements:

- Be a registered member of the Boy Scouts of America.
- Hold the First Class rank of the Boy Scouts of America, as a minimum.
- After registration with a troop or team, have experienced 15 days and nights of Boy Scout camping during the two-year period prior to the election.
The 15 days and nights must include one, but no more than one, long-term camp consisting of six consecutive days and five nights of resident camping, approved and under the auspices and standards of the Boy Scouts of America. The balance of the camping must be overnight, weekend, or other short-term camps.

NOTE:

Boy Scout Camping is tent or shelter camping, not indoor cabin camping.

Candidates for youth membership shall be elected by other youth members in accordance with policies set forth by the national Order of the Arrow committee.

Election of any person under 21 years of age as a candidate for membership shall be based on fulfillment of the youth membership requirements.

Scouts with Special Needs: The Order of the Arrow is committed to including Scouts and Scouters who have special needs because of disability. In the case of special-needs troops, election teams should follow the same procedures, keeping in mind that any Scout who is classified as a youth member of a troop, regardless of age, will be considered a youth (voting) member. All other membership requirements remain the same.

Adult Membership Qualifications: All members of or candidates for membership in the Order of the Arrow who are 21 years of age or older and who are registered members of the Boy Scouts of America shall be considered adult members or candidates for adult membership.

Individuals shall be selected as candidates based on the following:

1. Adult leaders in units:

Each year, upon holding a troop or team election for youth candidates that results in at least one youth candidate being elected, the unit committee may recommend adults up to one-third of the number of youth elected, rounded up where the number of youth candidates is not a multiple of three, to the lodge adult selection committee each year upon holding an election that results in at least one youth candidate being elected.

Adult leaders are defined as any registered member of the Boy Scouts of America who are 21 years of age or older. In addition to the one-third limit, the unit committee may nominate the currently-serving unit leader (but not assistant leaders), as long as he or she has served as unit leader for at least the previous twelve months.

Recommendations of the adult selection committee, with the approval of the Scout executive, serving as Supreme Chief of the Fire, will be candidates for induction, provided the following conditions are fulfilled:

- Selection of the adult is based on the ability to perform the necessary function to help the Order fulfill its purpose, and not for recognition of service, including current or prior achievement and positions.
- The individual will be an asset to the Order because of demonstrated abilities that fulfill the purpose of the Order.
- The camping requirements set forth for youth members are fulfilled.
- The adult leader's membership will provide a positive role model for the growth and development of the youth members of the lodge.

Thus the following table will explain the ratio for youth elected and adults nominated:
Number of Youth Elected Number of Adults Nominated*

1-3	Youth Elected	1 adult
4-6	Youth Elected	2 adults
7-9	Youth Elected	3 adults
10-12	Youth Elected	4 adults

Scoutmaster can be nominated in addition to these numbers adding one more to the total adults nominated.*

ALL ADULT NOMINATIONS MUST MEET THE CAMPING REQUIREMENTS.

NOTE:

Boy Scout Camping is tent or shelter camping, not indoor cabin camping.

2. Adult leaders in council and district positions:

The lodge adviser, district chairman, council president, or members of the professional staff may recommend adults to the lodge adult selection committee. Recommendations of the adult selection committee, with the approval of the Scout executive, serving as Supreme Chief of the Fire, will become candidates for induction. All requirements set forth for adult leaders in units must be fulfilled, with the exception of the camping requirements, which may be waived at the discretion of the lodge adviser and Scout executive. Adults may be recommended for membership only one time per year as either unit Scouters or district/council Scouters, but not both. How they are recommended depends on where they maintain their primary registration. Adult members shall be elected to membership at the discretion of the lodge adult selection committee. All members of the Order of the Arrow, both youth and adult, must successfully complete the Ordeal experience and participate in the induction ceremony. Because the Order of the Arrow is principally a youth organization, unit, district, and council Scouters are not elected to membership as a recognition. Election into the Order should take place when the adult's job in Boy Scouting or Varsity Scouting will make Order of the Arrow membership more meaningful in the lives of the youth membership.

Honorary Membership

Honorary membership in the Order of the Arrow is not authorized and shall not be given. Membership in the Order shall be gained only through fulfillment of membership requirements as stated in the official literature of the Order of the Arrow, Boy Scouts of America. Visiting Scouts or leaders cannot be given honorary memberships in the Order.

Life Membership

A life membership in the Order of the Arrow is not authorized and shall not be recognized. Membership in the Order of the Arrow requires current registration with the Boy Scouts of America. There is no official or authorized life membership registration status for the Order of the Arrow in the Boy Scouts of America.

- See the Adult Candidate Nomination Form for details.

Election Procedures

To become a member of the Order of the Arrow a Boy Scout or Varsity Scout is chosen by vote of the youths in his unit. This is a unique feature of the Order since the majority of those who select their candidates for this honor are not members of the lodge. However, lodge members in the unit have a vote as well as nonmembers. In this way membership is controlled by the youths in their own units and not by those who are already Arrowmen.

It is important that the members of the unit have the membership requirements properly explained to them.

Registered Active Member

In Boy Scout troops and Varsity Scout teams, every registered active member of the unit under age 21 at the time of election is eligible to vote.

A Boy Scout or Varsity Scout who carries a current national membership card and participates in at least some unit activities during the year is considered to be a registered active member of the unit. For example, a youth away at college who participates in some unit activities when home, such as a campout, camporee, or occasional unit meeting, should be considered a registered active member. A youth who moves away or drops out of the unit because of other interests would not be counted in the registered active membership figure.

Unit Election Procedures

1. The lodge will determine the time of year unit elections will be held and should inform unit leaders of this by mail well in advance. Lodges are encouraged to complete all unit elections prior to their troops/teams going to summer camp. This ensures that the maximum number of troop/team members can be present to vote in the election. Elections are not to be held in Venturing crews or Cub Scout packs.
2. The lodge, through the unit elections committee, should work with the unit leader in establishing the actual time and place to conduct the election. The Order should be represented by a two or three member team from the lodge or chapter. All election team members must be trained and in proper uniform during the election.

3. Before the election, the OA team must secure from the unit leader verification that at least 50 percent of the registered active unit membership is present. If at least 50 percent is not present, an election cannot be held. The number of registered active members and the number present are entered in the spaces provided on the unit election report form. If the unit leader is an Arrowman, he may explain to the group the purpose of the Order of the Arrow and the basis upon which candidates should be selected, and describe the method of election. If the unit leader is not a member of the Order, a member of the OA team should make this presentation with the unit leader's consent, demonstrating that election leadership is a cooperative effort of the unit leader and the OA team.
4. The unit leader provides a list of all registered active members of the unit who meet all eligibility requirements, including attitude and participation. The names of these members are entered on the report form and the unit leader signs the certification.
5. A voter may list on his ballot any combination of names, including all eligible candidates who he believes are worthy to become members of the Order of the Arrow.
6. Elected Youth:
 - All eligible youths who receive votes from at least 50 percent of those who turn in ballots are elected.
 - If no one is elected on the first ballot, a second vote may be held immediately, and the result of this vote will be final for the year.
7. The OA team can conduct the election following the unit elections ceremony found later in this guide. If the election team uses an alternate ceremony, it should be sure to stress the following points:
 - Select the candidates who, in your opinion, have set the best examples of brotherhood, cheerfulness, and service.
 - Vote only for those you believe will continue in unselfish service to your troop/team.
 - If you feel that no one is worthy, turn in a blank ballot.
 - If you are new in the unit and do not know the candidates well enough to vote wisely, you may abstain by not turning in a ballot at all; this will not affect the final result.
 - Youths eligible for election also vote, and they may vote for themselves if they feel they are worthy.

8. When the voting is finished, the OA election team counts the number of ballots turned in, and enters the numbers on the unit election report.
9. The OA team determines the minimum number of votes one must receive to be elected, as follows: If the number of ballots turned in was even (2, 4, 6, 8, etc.), divide this number by two. If the number of was odd (1, 3, 5, 7, etc.), add one and then divide by two. The number of votes a youth must receive to be elected is entered on the report form.
10. The votes are counted in private by the election team and the unit leader to determine who has been elected. All votes count equally. If at least one has been elected, this result is final. If no one is elected, the OA team announces this fact and states that the unit will now be given the opportunity to vote again. Time is allowed for further explanation of the purpose of the Order and the election procedures, and for any questions. (No information about the votes received by candidates is to be revealed at any time.) The second ballot is then held immediately, and if the unit still elects no one, this is the final result for the year's election. The OA team places a check mark next to the names of those who have been elected.

Announcement of Results

As soon as the election is completed, the unit leader may or may not choose to announce to the entire unit the names of members who have been elected. Names and addresses of the newly elected candidates must be forwarded to the lodge records adviser. Candidates will be called out at the earliest possible time, either at a summer camp, a camporee, or a special ceremony. If possible the unit leader should inform the election team of his desired public call-out ceremony. The election form has a section to put this information.

The names and addresses (plus additional information that the lodge feels is necessary) are listed on the election report form. OA team members sign the form and mail it to the specified address.

Candidate Status

After election, a Boy Scout, Varsity Scout, or adult remains a candidate until completion of the Ordeal and Ordeal ceremony. If this period of candidacy exceeds one year, the candidate's name will be dropped. To become a candidate again, they must be reelected. The executive committee of the lodge may extend the one-year limit between election and induction if a candidate is ill or there are other unusual circumstances.

General Q & A

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What is the camping requirement for membership?

A: As Scouting's national honor society of campers, the Order of the Arrow requires that each youth and adult candidate have fulfilled the following in order to be eligible for election: After registration with a troop or team, have experienced fifteen days and nights of out-of doors not indoor cabin camping with the Boy Scout during the two-year period prior to the election. The fifteen days and nights must include one, but no more than one, long term camp consisting of six consecutive days and five nights of resident camping, approved and under the auspices and standards of the Boy Scouts of America. The balance of the camping must be overnight, weekend, or other short-term camps.

Q: How many youth must be present to hold an election?

A: At least half of the registered active youth in a unit must be present before a unit election can be held.

Q: Can the unit leader prevent a youth candidates name from being placed on the ballot?

A: Yes. To become eligible for election and have their name placed on the ballot, youth members must have the approval of the unit leader. The unit leader must certify prior to the election a candidate's Scout spirit (i.e., his adherence to the Scout Oath and Law and active participation in unit activities). The unit leader must also certify that the nominee meets all specified requirements at the time of the annual election.

Q: Can a unit leader remove a candidate's name after the election?

A: No. The unit leader should remove a candidate from consideration for election to the Order of the Arrow prior to the election being held. This is why the unit leader certifies, prior to the election, that the candidates have Scout spirit and that the nominee meets all specified requirements at the time of the annual election. Unit leaders should not take a "wait and see" approach where candidates that do not have their approval (or may be questionable) are placed on the ballot to wait and see whether their peers elect them.

Q: Can OA members from the unit where the election is being held conduct the election?

A: The Agaming Maangogwan Lodge encourages the use of election team members from other units. This can prevent possible conflicts of interest during the vote count as well as demonstrate that the OA extends beyond the Troop or Team. OA members from the unit the election is being held in may conduct the election if no other arrangements can be made.

Q: Can a unit use pre-printed ballots?

A: Yes. However, care must be taken to ensure that all candidates' names appear on the ballot. Excluding a candidate's name and having it "written in" during the election should be discouraged since this may prevent a fair opportunity for this candidate to be elected. If it is discovered that an eligible candidate's name is missing from a pre-printed ballot, blank ballots should be used instead.

Q: Can “All of the above” or “None of the above” be included as choices on a ballot?

A: Yes. The only requirement that is in national OA policy along these lines is that “a voter may list on his ballot any combination of names, including all eligible candidates who he believes are worthy to become members of the Order of the Arrow”. “None of the above” votes should be treated as blank ballots for the purposes of counting. Ballots should not be presented that ask the voters to select candidates which they do not want to elect.

Q: Can Unit Elections be held in Venture Crews?

A: No. Unit Elections can be held only in Boy Scout Troops and Varsity Teams under current national OA policy. However, members of Venture Crews can be elected to the Order of the Arrow through a Troop or Team in which they are registered. The same youth and adult membership requirements apply.

Q: Are the young ladies in the Venture Crew eligible for election into the OA?

A: Current OA National Policy is that to be eligible as a youth (all members under age 21), a candidate must be registered in the Boy Scouts, hold at least the rank of first class, and fulfill the camping requirements. This means that female youth Crew members (under age 21) are ineligible. They may be elected once they are an adult (21 or older) through the adult nomination process.

Q: How many adults can a Unit recommend to the lodge adult selection committee?

A: The unit committee may recommend adults up to one-third of the number of youth elected, rounded up where the number of youth candidates is not a multiple of three, to the lodge adult selection committee each year upon holding an election that results in at least one youth candidate being elected. Adult leaders are defined as registered members of the Boy Scouts of America who are 21 years of age or older. In addition to the one-third limit, the unit committee may nominate the currently-serving unit leader (but not assistant leaders), as long as he or she has served as unit leader for at least the previous twelve months. The adult nominations must still meet the same camping requirements as the youth.

Q: Can adult leaders be recommended at the district or council level?

A: Yes. The lodge adviser, district chairman, council president, or members of the professional staff may recommend adults to the lodge adult selection committee. All requirements for adult leaders in units must be fulfilled, with the exception of the camping requirements, which may be waived at the discretion of the lodge adviser and Scout executive.

Unit Election Script

OA Member A:

Fellow Boy Scouts, the Order of the Arrow is Scouting's National Honor Society. Its purpose is to recognize and honor those campers who best live up to the Scout Oath and Scout Law in their daily lives and to guide them in expanding the service that has made them outstanding.

The Order promotes Scout camping and maintains camping traditions and spirit. It emphasizes that the good Scout camper is not only skilled in Scoutcraft, but also true to the ideals of Scouting and its tradition of the daily Good Turn.

The only way a Scout can become a member of the Order of the Arrow is to be elected for this honor by the members of his unit. To be eligible for election, a youth must fulfill the camping requirement, hold the First Class rank, and be approved by the Scoutmaster.

After being elected, the Scout must complete the Ordeal, which is a series of tests of his sincere dedication of the high ideals of Scouting and the Order. If he is faithful in performing the tests, he takes a solemn pledge of service and is admitted into the Order. A long period of self-improvement and service then follows.

The lodge flap and the distinctive sash identifies a scout as a member of the Order of the Arrow. They are symbols of service. Our lodge has its own activities and projects, but our program does not replace the member's responsibility to his unit. Indeed, each Arrowman is expected to give richer service to his own troop or team in return for the honor his unit extended to him.

American Indian lore is an attractive sideline in our Order. Indian dances and ceremonies add color to our program of service, and members often make Indian lore their hobby. However, one does not need American Indian attire or skill in American Indian lore to become a valuable member of the Order of the Arrow.

Scouts, you will elect representatives to our brotherhood of cheerful service, and we are here to assist you in the election. All registered active members of this troop or team, except those 21 or older, are entitled to vote. All those who receive votes from at least half of those who turn in ballots are elected. The number of candidates you elect will depend on how your votes agree with votes of other members of your unit.

Remember that an Order of the Arrow election is not a popularity contest! Don't vote for a Scout just because he is your friend or just because he is a good athlete or because he is older than the rest. What really counts is his loyalty to the Scout Oath and Law.

Campaigning in an Order of the Arrow election is not permitted. You are expected to think for yourself; do not let others influence your decision. The election is by secret ballot and no discussion will be permitted, so no one will know for whom you are voting. This important decision about your fellow Scouts is entirely up to you.

Before we announce the names of those eligible and begin the election, are there any questions?

OA Member B:

The following members of this unit have met the camping and advancement requirements and are eligible for election, as certified by your unit leader. Will you stand and form a line over here as your names are called?

(Point out a place to line up and read the list slowly. Arrange the candidates in a line facing the voters at the place indicated; the line can be semicircular if the eligible group is large. Write each name on the chalkboard or flip chart as called).

Scouts, you should now answer each of the following questions to yourself. Your answers will help you to make the right selections.

OA Member A:

Who in this group is a friend to all and a brother to every other Scout?

Who is pleasant and easy to get along with? Is he kind and helpful? In all, if you were a Tenderfoot Scout, would you like to hike and camp with him?

Who is cheerful, even when he has many tiresome jobs to do? Who smiles whenever he can? Who obeys promptly and cheerfully? Does he control his temper?

If you were at camp with him for several weeks, do you think you would enjoy it?

Who is always ready to give unselfish and wholehearted service to others?

Who, in serving others, can forget his own desires and interests? Who has served your unit all year round, faithfully attending your meetings and helping with your service projects? Do you think he will continue to his service in the future? If you were his patrol leader, could you depend on him?

In all, ask yourselves: Who in this group, by living up to the Scout Oath, serves your fellow Scouts with such an example of brotherhood and cheerfulness that you look up to him with deep respect and admiration?

PAUSE

OA Member B:

Scouts, on the ballot you will be given, print the first and last names of the candidates who, in your opinion, have set the best examples of brotherhood, cheerfulness, and service.

Vote only for those you believe will continue in unselfish service to your troop. If you feel that no one is worthy, turn in an unmarked ballot. If you are new in the troop or team and do not know the candidates well enough to vote wisely, you may abstain by not turning in a ballot at all, and this will not affect the final result.

Those eligible for election also vote, and they may vote for themselves if they feel they are worthy.

The names of the eligible candidates are listed on this chalkboard (flip chart, poster, etc.)

When you are finished, fold the ballot only once and give the pencil and ballot to any member of the election team.

(Distribute election ballots and pencils.)

(Collect ballots and pencils. Count the votes in private with the unit leader.)

OA Provisional Summer Camp Weeks

WHAT: Provide Provisional Youth and Adult Leadership for ONE Summer Camp “Troop.”

Provisional camp is an opportunity for a Scout to spend a week at camp without having to come with his Troop. For Summer Camp 2017 our Order of the Arrow Lodges will provide a Scoutmaster and Troop leadership for all provisional Scouts in attendance.

The Scout will work on the merit badges and rank advancements that are offered during the regular summer season, or participate in any of the older-boy programs.

Provisional camping is also a chance for a Scout to experience a second week of camping; whether to finish merit badges or just enjoy the fun and adventure of the outdoor program.

Outdoor Adventures and the Michigan Chapters of the Order of the Arrow are pleased to announce provisional camping opportunities available for all Boy Scouts in 2017 at the following camps/sessions;

- D-bar-A Scout Ranch, Session 3, July 2-8 – Nataepu Shohpe Lodge
- Camp Rotary, Session 7, July 30-August 5 – Agaming Maahgogwan Lodge

Interested in Attending? See the MCC Camping Website to register.

Once registered, you will be responsible for making all payments and registering for Merit Badges and activities. Your registration confirmation will include the contact person in the Lodge for questions and provisional camp information.

HIGH ADVENTURE OPPORTUNITIES THROUGH THE ORDER OF THE ARROW

WILDERNES VOYAGE: CHARLES L. SOMERS CANOE BASE

The Order of the Arrow Wilderness Voyage program is an experience like no other. For two weeks, you will join together with Arrowmen from around the country and experience all that the Boundary Waters Canoe Area Wilderness in northern Minnesota has to offer.

The first week of the program is spent giving back to the Boundary Waters through portage trail restoration work. The second part of the program is a trek planned by the crew. From the 8-1/2 mile "Grand Portage" leading to Lake Superior, to the Height of Land, even the pictographs on Fishdance Lake, crews have done and seen all in the Boundary Waters.

TRAIL CREW: PHILMONT SCOUT RANCH

The Order of the Arrow Trail Crew program is one of the best ways to experience Scouting's premier high adventure base, Philmont Scout Ranch. For two weeks, participants see and experience all that Philmont has to offer and much more.

For the first week, participants have the chance to make a significant difference to Philmont by participating in trail building in the backcountry. The second week of the program is spent experiencing Philmont in its finest. Unlike regular treks, Trail Crews make their own itinerary, instead of selecting from pre-planned routes. You can do and see just about anything, from the Tooth of Time to Baldy Mountain, your crew decides!

OCEAN ADVENTURE: FLORIDA SEABASE

The Order of the Arrow Ocean Adventure is a unique opportunity to experience the programs at the Florida Sea Base, while providing a new type of service to the Atlantic Ocean. In a two-week period, participants will complete PADI SCUBA certification, as well as interact with undersea wildlife like no other Scouts do.

For one week, participants will undergo intensive SCUBA certification in preparation. Arrowmen will also provide meaningful service to the staff of the Florida Sea Base, and enjoy fun in the Florida sun while brushing up on their volleyball skills. The second week of OAOA is spent using the SCUBA certification to its fullest extent. Participants will spend their time taking wildlife samples in the Florida Keys, performing island restoration and other meaningful projects to the surrounding area.

OPERATION ARROW

The National Order of the Arrow Serves the 2017 National Jamboree

After a record-setting national conference in 2015, the Order of the Arrow will again seek to make history with Operation Arrow at the 2017 National Scout Jamboree.

To continue a tradition that dates back to the 1950 National Scout Jamboree, over 750 youth Arrowmen will answer the call to serve as part of Operation Arrow - the largest jamboree staff team ever assembled by the Order of the Arrow!

Operation Arrow staff members will support the jamboree program by joining one of three primary OA program areas: the Service Corps, the Trek Guides and the Indian Village.

The summer of 2017 will soon be here. Planning for the next national Scout jamboree at the Summit Bechtel Reserve (SBR) is already well underway. We hope you will join us for what is sure to be the experience of a lifetime, as a part of Operation Arrow at the 2017 National Scout Jamboree!

The lodge has set aside money to offset the cost for members who wish to attend in this role. If you are interested please contact Mr. Stoppa As Soon As Possible!

Part ONE: Service Corps – the 18th time the OA will serve at the National Jamboree

Part TWO: Trek Guides – acting as daylong guides and providing program enroute

Part THREE: Indian Village – Re-creating a Native American village at the turn of the 19th Century with demonstrations, storytelling, etc.

Check out the National OA website for details and registration.

National Leadership Seminar – NLS

The National Leadership Seminar (NLS) is a weekend training program focusing on leadership development. Run by the Region Chief and his Advisers, it provides an in-depth look at leadership skills and techniques. An NLS discusses how these skills can be applied in your role in the OA and in other aspects of your life.

The NLS program is offered several times a year at various locations in each region. Scheduled dates are given on the National OA Program Calendar, and are published in the Order of the Arrow's National Bulletin.

In 2017, the dates and places include:

- When: February 17 - 19
- Location: Rochester, IN

You can learn more about NLS at <http://central.oa-bsa.org/program/nls/>

If you are interested in attending an NLS, please contact the Lodge Chief or Adviser for details.

To register, contact to Mr. Brian Clegg and be ready to:

- Pay the initial $50 non-refundable fee (The lodge picks up the other $150.00 fee.)
- Complete the Section Scholarship form (within 30 days of attendance)
- Complete the NLS commitment (i.e. about 3 months following the event)
- Receive $25.00 back if the section and commitment forms are completed.

As one Arrowman described his NLS experience:

"I just returned from one of the greatest leadership courses around. The NLS course is a winner..."

"I didn't even get out of the room after the second or third session before I was putting the new knowledge to use. The use of movie clips to drive home points of leadership works well..."

"The Staff for the training was excellent. We were privileged to have our National Vice-Chief, the Region Chief, and several Section Chiefs and various members of the National OA Committee. A great staff."

"Well, I have now been given more useful tools to use to help the Arrowmen in my Council improve themselves and the Lodge. I feel a little less nervous about my own position...."

"If and when you get the chance to attend a NLS, GO!"

UNIT OF

EXCELLENCE

Back Ground & Purpose
Requirements
Recognitions

OVERVIEW: Unit of Excellence

I. Background & Purpose of the Award

As the primary platform where the Scouting program is delivered to youth, the unit is the most vital and important level of the BSA for the Order to support.

The Order of the Arrow Unit of Excellence Award seeks to identify those units, and the leaders within them, who excel at incorporating the OA into their annual planning. This award is intended to provide a tool for lodges to recognize, incentivize, and operationalize unit-level participation in Order of the Arrow programs.

The OA Unit of Excellence Award criteria recognize units that invite the lodge to conduct quality unit elections, participate in lodge events and meetings, and operate a complete OA Troop/Team Representative program. Our hope is that units that complete these criteria will benefit from the support programs that the Order of the Arrow has implemented to strengthen unit-delivered program. This recognition program, along with other tools for unit support, should be distributed and promoted to Scoutmaster/Coach, OA Troop/Team Representatives and Advisers, and chapter election teams to include in communication to units.

II. Award Requirements

Units must complete all of the requirements listed below in order to be eligible as an Order of the Arrow Unit of Excellence. If all requirements are completed, the unit receives a ribbon for their troop/team flag, per annum. In addition to the ribbon, the award system has built in recognitions for the key players in each unit responsible for creating a strong Order of the Arrow culture in the unit. These awards are available for the following three positions:

- Scoutmaster/Coach

The OA Unit of Excellence Award criteria recognize units that invite the lodge to conduct quality unit elections, participate in lodge events and meetings, and operate a complete OA Troop Representative program.

The Unit of Excellence Award also contains recognitions for key players in the Unit who help build a strong OA program there: Scoutmaster, Troop OA Representative, and Troop OA Representative Adviser.

Requirements – Please complete and provide written descriptions on the provided lines.

ELECTION SCRIPT

OA Member A:

Fellow Boy Scouts, the Order of the Arrow is Scouting's National Honor Society. Its purpose is to recognize and honor those campers who best live up to the Scout Oath and Scout Law in their daily lives and to guide them in expanding the service that has made them outstanding.

The Order promotes Scout camping and maintains camping traditions and spirit. It emphasizes that the good Scout camper is not only skilled in Scoutcraft, but also true to the ideals of Scouting and its tradition of the daily Good Turn.

The only way a Scout can become a member of the Order of the Arrow is to be elected for this honor by the members of his unit. To be eligible for election, a youth must fulfill the camping requirement, hold the First Class rank, and be approved by the Scoutmaster.

After being elected, the Scout must complete the Ordeal, which is a series of tests of his sincere dedication of the high ideals of Scouting and the Order. If he is faithful in performing the tests, he takes a solemn pledge of service and is admitted into the Order. A long period of self-improvement and service then follows.

The lodge flap and the distinctive sash identifies a scout as a member of the Order of the Arrow. They are symbols of service. Our lodge has its own activities and projects, but our program does not replace the member's responsibility to his unit. Indeed, each Arrowman is expected to give richer service to his own troop or team in return for the honor his unit extended to him.

American Indian lore is an attractive sideline in our Order. Indian dances and ceremonies add color to our program of service, and members often make Indian lore their hobby. However, one does not need American Indian attire or skill in American Indian lore to become a valuable member of the Order of the Arrow.

Scouts, you will elect representatives to our brotherhood of cheerful service, and we are here to assist you in the election. All registered active members of this troop or team, except those 21 or older, are entitled to vote. All those who receive votes from at least half of those who turn in ballots are elected. The number of candidates you elect will depend on how your votes agree with votes of other members of your unit.

Remember that an Order of the Arrow election is not a popularity contest! Don't vote for a Scout just because he is your friend or just because he is a good athlete or because he is older than the rest. What really counts is his loyalty to the Scout Oath and Law.

Campaigning in an Order of the Arrow election is not permitted. You are expected to think for yourself; do not let others influence your decision. The election is by secret ballot and no discussion will be permitted, so no one will know for whom you are voting. This important decision about your fellow Scouts is entirely up to you.

Before we announce the names of those eligible and begin the election, are there any questions?

OA Member B:

The following members of this unit have met the camping and advancement requirements and are eligible for election, as certified by your unit leader. Will you stand and form a line over here as your names are called?

(Point out a place to line up and read the list slowly. Arrange the candidates in a line facing the voters at the place indicated; the line can be semicircular if the eligible group is large. Write each name on the chalkboard or flip chart as called).

Scouts, you should now answer each of the following questions to yourself. Your answers will help you to make the right selections.

OA Member A:

Who in this group is a friend to all and a brother to every other Scout?

Who is pleasant and easy to get along with? Is he kind and helpful? In all, if you were a Tenderfoot Scout, would you like to hike and camp with him?

Who is cheerful, even when he has many tiresome jobs to do? Who smiles whenever he can? Who obeys promptly and cheerfully? Does he control his temper?

If you were at camp with him for several weeks, do you think you would enjoy it?

Who is always ready to give unselfish and wholehearted service to others?

Who, in serving others, can forget his own desires and interests? Who has served your unit all year round, faithfully attending your meetings and helping with your service projects? Do you think he will continue to his service in the future? If you were his patrol leader, could you depend on him?

In all, ask yourselves: Who in this group, by living up to the Scout Oath, serves your fellow Scouts with such an example of brotherhood and cheerfulness that you look up to him with deep respect and admiration?

PAUSE

OA Member B:

Scouts, on the ballot you will be given, print the first and last names of the candidates who, in your opinion, have set the best examples of brotherhood, cheerfulness, and service.

Vote only for those you believe will continue in unselfish service to your troop. If you feel that no one is worthy, turn in an unmarked ballot. If you are new in the troop or team and do not know the candidates well enough to vote wisely, you may abstain by not turning in a ballot at all, and this will not affect the final result.

Those eligible for election also vote, and they may vote for themselves if they feel they are worthy.

The names of the eligible candidates are listed on this chalkboard (flip chart, poster, etc.)

When you are finished, fold the ballot only once and give the pencil and ballot to any member of the election team.

(Distribute election ballots and pencils.)

(Collect ballots and pencils. Count the votes in private with the unit leader.)

While the ballots are being counted, provide the unit with the

ORDEAL

Order of the Arrow - Scouting's National Honor Society

Spring 2017

Dear Ordeal Candidate,

Congratulations! Your fellow troop members have elected you for candidacy in the Order of the Arrow! Your election shows that your fellow scouts believe that you live by the high ideals of the Scout Oath and Law. You may now begin a new journey -- one that will test your loyalty to the ideals to which you have pledged your honor.

If you choose to continue, your next step is to freely and willingly endure an Ordeal within one year. You may complete the Ordeal at the 2017 Spring Induction weekend. You will be helping set-up camp and also completing other camp work projects. Be sure to bring work cloths and work gloves!

The cost for you as an Ordeal Candidate is $48.00. This includes the one-time Induction Fee (of $28.00) plus the weekend fee (of $20.00). The Induction Fee covers a lodge flap, Ordeal sash, OA Member Handbook, and dues for the first year PLUS a new Brotherhood sash a year from now when you complete the Brotherhood in 2018. A registration form is enclosed or register on-line. Registration opens mid-April. Directions to camp can be found on-line, too.

Bring regular camping gear you would normally use for a troop weekend including a sleeping bag and ground cloth, tent, work clothes & gloves, raincoat or poncho and other personal items such as shirts, pants, shorts, towel, toilet kit, water bottle, and day pack. Please eat before coming on Friday night and arrive in full scout uniform between 6:30 pm & 7:30 pm. Closing ceremonies begin at 9:30 am on Sunday. Departure is immediately following (around 10:00 am).

Bring a COPY of your BSA Health Form Parts A (Health History) & B (Consent Form). If you need one, check out the website. Your parents are welcome to attend the parent meeting on Friday night at 8:15 pm and the closing ceremonies at 9:30 am on Sunday.

If you wish to take the Ordeal this SPRING, you are expected to attend the weekend in its entirety – from Friday's registration through Sunday's closing. Check with your scoutmaster or other Order of the Arrow members and car pool to the Induction Weekend. If for personal reasons you cannot attend the spring, Fall Induction Weekend is scheduled for September 8 – 10th at Silver Trails Scout Reservation near Jeddo, MI.

The Order of the Arrow Unit of Excellence Award seeks to identify those units, and the leaders within them, who excel at incorporating the OA into their annual planning. This award is a tool for lodges to recognize, incentivize, and operationalize unit-level participation in Order of the Arrow programs. The OA Unit of Excellence Award criteria recognize units that invite the lodge to conduct quality unit elections, participate in lodge events and meetings, and operate a complete OA Troop Representative program.

The Unit of Excellence Award also contains recognitions for key players in the Unit who help build a strong OA program there: Scoutmaster, Troop OA Representative, and Troop OA Representative Adviser.

Requirements – Please complete and provide written descriptions on the provided lines.

ORDER OF THE ARROW – WATER AND WOODS FIELD SERVICE COUNCIL

2017 Dues Form

The 2017 Lodge Dues of $13.00 an arrowman are NOW DUE! This is a $3 increase because national has increased the per member lodge charter fee. Dues have NOT increased in over four years!!

For those who did not pay last year, the lodge asks you to pay the $18.00 fee -- $5.00 for reactivation of your membership and $13.00 for your 2017 dues.

For those elected who completed your Ordeal this past year, your 2016 dues were included in the Induction Fee. However, YOU MUST PAY the regular $13.00 dues fee for 2017.

Arrowmen, please remember the OA lodge flap you wear on your uniform indicates you are a "current" dues paying member of our Honor Society. The biggest reason to pay dues is to remain an active member. As an active member, you will have the opportunity to become a Brotherhood or Vigil Honor member, attend events, help with official service projects, run for youth positions and seek leadership roles & opportunities in the lodge.

Our Lodge also supports many other activities that are part of our purpose of providing cheerful service to others. Your dues are used to support chapter programs, continue communications, maintain ceremonial outfits, pay for youth leadership trainings, help with camp improvements, and support other council programs.

PLEASE NOTE: Gold Plan members MUST pay your dues. The Gold Plan incentive still applies, but counts towards the activity fees, not the 2017 Dues. Your mailing label denotes the current year of dues paid membership.

THANK YOU in advance for supporting your OA lodge and Water and Woods Field Service Council!

ELANGOMAT INDUCTION WEEKEND GUIDE

AGAMING MAANGOGWAN LODGE 804

An Elangomat is supposed to guide an Ordeal candidate by providing the best example of a member of the Order. What is a good member of the Order? One that best exhibits the scout oath and scout law. The Elangomat is the most important part of the Ordeal. Here are some qualities that must be paid special attention to:

Willingness: The most important job about being an Elangomat is being willing and excited to be one. If you want to do a good job as an Elangomat, be sure you are willing to work on your skills and prepare yourself for the Ordeal.

Experience: To be an Elangomat, you need to be experienced. This does not mean you need to have been a member for long; it means you need to know your scout skills, and know how things work in the Order. You will also need to know how the Ordeal works from start to finish, and what the whole purpose of the Ordeal is. Remember: these candidates have no idea what the Order of the Arrow is!

Trustworthy: The candidate must be able to trust the Elangomat, or nothing will be accomplished. As an Elangomat, you must show through your actions, unspoken communication, and body language that you can be trusted. Once again, be the example.

Communication: As an Elangomat, you need to know how to communicate important information without talking. You do not need to know sign language, but be ready to use your hands or bodily gestures as needed. From experience, I can tell you will need to do a lot of hand motioning, and may have to talk from time-to-time when giving out instructions that can be a tad complicated.

Kindness: The Elangomat has to lead with sure decisions, but must also be kind and considerate to the candidates (that means no singling out or hazing!!!). They are the future of our lodge, so treat them with respect.

Other key points: These items listed above are the qualities required to be a good Elangomat. Along with those, here are a few guidelines to keep in mind while conducting the Ordeal.

Do not tell the candidates anything the do not need to know. Let them take in the whole experience themselves. For example, do not reveal keys to the ceremony. Keep their minds on the Ordeal experience. You should not be talking anyways except to give instructions.

Strongly discourage the breaking of the silence rule. If you see candidates talking, ask them to stop, silently if possible (by placing your finger over your lips or something similar). It may seem strange, but little things like even talking once when you should not talk may ruin the whole experience.

Respect the individual candidates. This means NO HAZING!!! under any circumstances. They have enough trouble going through the Ordeal to get that kind of inconsiderate stress, and hazing will ruin the candidates Ordeal experience. Hazing is not what the Order of the Arrow stands for, so you will not do it. Hazing is any treatment or forced behavior (through peer pressure) that may be degrading, demeaning, insulting, against one's personal beliefs, or any behavior that would single out any individual or group and have them do things the rest of the candidates would not.

When doing the Ordeal, make sure you take short breaks every once in a while, and make sure your candidates get plenty of water.

I. Registration Reminders:

1. Ordeal Candidates get Spirit of the Arrow Booklet #1: Upon a Lofty Journey
2. Ordeal Candidates get Camp Map, and Arrow Zip Lock (with clan marker on arrow shaft)

Clans are typically assigned after check-in because there are some who do not pre-register, or some may even show up late. After the clans are assigned, introduce yourself to the clan and get to know some of the candidates. Say your name, where you are from, your Troop number, rank, membership status, how long you have been in the OA, what sports you play, your hobbies, or any other information you feel they need to know. Ask them to do the same, and learn (memorize immediately) and remember their names. Repeat their names, say hello, and shake their hand. This is the group you will be with for the whole weekend. You will not call them by their names until Sunday (technically Saturday after the feast), but you want to remember them during the day in case an emergency arises.

III. Elangomat Meeting @ 8:30 pm

1. Elangomat Meeting with Elangomat Chair and Adviser and ALL Elangomat Guides

Clans are typically assigned after check-in because there are some who do not pre-register, or some may even show up late. After the clans are assigned, introduce yourself to the clan and get to know some of the candidates. Say your name, where you are from, your Troop number, rank, membership status, how long you have been in the OA, what sports you play, your hobbies, or any other information you feel they need to know. Ask them to do the same, and learn (memorize immediately) and remember their names. Repeat their names, say hello, and shake their hand. This is the group you will be with for the whole weekend. You will not call them by their names until Sunday (technically Saturday after the feast), but you want to remember them during the day in case an emergency arises.

VIII. Elangomats walk with Candidates to Pre-Ordeal

Soon after, you will walk out to the Pre-Ordeal ceremony guided by torch bearers. Try to keep silent while walking the trail. It will give you some practice before you are needed to. Follow the person in front of you, not deviating from the group. You will be instructed where to stand and where the four principals will be standing. Then just wait and listen to the ceremony, test the bow, and take the vows of the Ordeal.

IX. Elangomats stay with Candidates overnight

When the ceremony is over, you will leave for your sleeping places. You will not have to show your candidates where to sleep. The guide – Kichkinet – will do so.

When you arrive at your sleeping points, you will be dropped off by clan. Each member will sleep apart. After making sure all of your candidates have setup their bedroll and are set for the night, do so for yourself. Be sure to leave your sash on the ground, with the arrow pointing to your location. In the event of rain, you are covered because a tarp is a part of your bedroll. In case of severe weather, candidates will be gathered and brought to a safe location. The verdict will be made in conjunction with the Lodge Key 3, or other advisors if the Lodge Key 3 is not present at the time.

X. Saturday Morning of the Ordeal

1. Drum and Drum for a few moments beginning at 7:15 am
2. Wake-up Elangomat Guide. Have Guide wake-up clan. In the morning, you will wake up around sunrise, or whatever the scheduled time may say. We are required by law to allow for eight hours of sleep. Be sure to bring a watch.
3. Wait until you hear the drum beat before you start moving around. Wake up your clan (get creative with the lazy ones) and be sure you wake up ALL of your clan and are accounted for. Help them get their bedrolls together if needed.
4. Check head counts.
5. Use the Toilets / Sinks to freshen-up
6. Put sleeping bag and gear in piles at determined site.
7. Flag Ceremony – done by the Elangomat Guides (IN SILENCE)

XI. Saturday Morning of the Ordeal -- continued

1. Move to a "spot" by clans
2. Kichkinet passes out Spirit of the Arrow booklet #3
3. Others ceremonial team members pass out food
4. Have candidates drink plenty of water
5. Have candidates use the rest room. Wash up.
6. Stay in the location. Work projects begin.

7. You will then head out and work on various projects to help prepare the camp for either the summer season or winter season. You may need to give instructions on various projects, but do not verbally unless absolutely necessary. Remember to take short breaks once in a while, keep around five minutes, and be sure the candidates drink plenty of water. Keep an eye out in case a candidate seems sick or dazed. If this is encountered, ask if they are okay, besides being tired or hungry. If need be, allow them a little extra break, and then resume work. If they need medical attention, send them with a buddy to the Health Lodge (dining hall). Be sure to radio ahead to make sure someone is there and knows they are coming. If they feel better or are fine, the medical staff will send them back to the clan.

If you do your job, it will make the Ordeal experience a great one for these members, and the lodge will grow stronger from your efforts, and they will not be forgotten. It is the most important job during the Ordeal, and we know it takes hard work. So we thank you for your interest, and hope you learn something more about yourself, and this Order, during your experience as an Elangomat.
