Gerber Scout Reservation

Gerber's Betty Ford Adventureland incorporates 6 unique program areas. Areas include Wagons On which is an open field around which several stationary covered wagons form a circle. Fort Clatsop is our most authentic area built after the fashion of a pioneer style log cabin. Babe the Blue Ox is located in the woods and revolves around a blue pavilion made to look like an ox. The Lost Ship is a giant ship that is accessible from the top deck and as well as the hold. Huck Finn Rafts is located in our fishing area where campers have the opportunity to bring their own poles or use our old-fashion cane poles. Tree Houses which is a system of suspended and connected platforms overlooking a hill. And Fort Akela, a square, wooden fort with a top deck.

Adventureland Amenities

- Dining Hall with all meals provided
- Tent Villages with 5 person youth tents and 2 person adult tents. Cots and mattresses are provided.

Camp Munhackle

Camp Munhackle, has 120 acres on the shores of Bruin Lake. The summer program activities include: archery, BB gun, boating, fishing, games, handicrafts, nature, scout spirit, scout skills, and swimming. The program is well-rounded and provides something of interest for all campers.

While at Camp your group will be part of a Triad, a program group that will go around to programs together having three programs during a morning or afternoon session in close proximity. This provides great opportunities for Scouts to be with their friends, and make new ones, while maximizing program instead of walking distances from program area to program area.

Camp Munhackle Amenities

- Dining Hall with buffet style dining
- 2 person nylon and screened family style tents. Cots provided.
- Shower house with running water and individual shower and bathroom stalls.
- Trading Post
- Open, sprawling, state park feel in campsites and program areas
