

How to find Merit Badge Counselors

This guide is meant to help Scouts BSA, Venturing, and Sea Scout leaders find Merit Badge Counselors (MBC) for their youth participants. The report provided is ONLY available to Unit Leaders; Scouts and Parents do not have access to this report. Since these reports contain personal contact information, use this information as needed; please do not compile lists or share beyond your Troop. As always, you or the Scout should verify that the MBC is still willing to counsel on the given merit badge.

1. Log into Scoutbook
2. Click on your unit to bring up the main page.
3. Scroll down and click on MB Counselor List
4. You may now filter the results for your needs. You can select a specific badge: best when looking for a counselor for a Scout. You can also leave it at "All badges" to run a list of badges that are counseled by a specific adult (since we adults don't always remember what we signed up for!).
5. The Council and District will be set to your specific information, but you can choose the proximity to the ZIP code provided in the upper section.
6. Click Search to show your results.
