

The Leadership DINNER

Join us for the annual community gathering to celebrate, recognize and learn about leadership. Our evening begins with a social reception followed by dinner and program. We will recognize local leaders for their great impact and learn from distinguished guests. Proceeds from this event will help all local children in our community gain access to the leadership focused programs of the Boy Scouts of America, and the Leadership development programs for children k-12 at Adventure Point.

OCTOBER 29, 2024

Reception starts at 5:30 PM

JW MARRIOTT

235 Louis St NW, Grand Rapids, MI 49503

Mike Manazir is a graduate of Top Gun and commanded an F-14 squadron, the USS Nimitz aircraft carrier, and a Carrier Strike Group. Mike retired as a Two-Star Admiral and is now an executive with a Fortune 100 aerospace and defense company.

He mentors a leadership style based on heart and trust that champions inclusion. Mike believes if you have one or more people looking to you to show the way, you are a leader.

The author of the Learn How to Lead to Win, Mike shares thirty three gripping stories and actionable insights gained from his successful career in the military and corporate world. revealing the fundamental principles of effective leadership. Each story highlights a key leadership lesson, such as leading from the heart, accountability, communication, and strategic thinking, providing readers with practical strategies to enhance their leadership abilities.

Mike has a passion for stories, leadership, big ships, fast jets, thundering Harleys and Kelly, his bride of more than forty years.

The Lacks Family and Lacks Enterprises

For over 60 years, Lacks Enterprises built their success on a commitment to pushing the boundaries of what is possible and a dedication to the hardworking, West Michigan principles they were founded on. Since being founded in 1961 by Richard Lacks Sr. and his father J.P. Lacks the company has embodied the detail-focused drive of a family-owned manufacturer with the innovation and experience of a global name.

Lacks has been committed to their employees and their families offering a number of progressive tools and resources to live healthy, fulfilling lives. A medical center, healthy dining options, volunteer opportunities, community outreach programs like these are what bolsters camaraderie and goodwill and has won Lacks multiple Best and Brightest Places to Work awards.

"Lacks has succeeded because of its culture and characteristics that make it different. The terms that are valued the most and have allowed us to maintain success are trust one another, be loyal to each other to a fault and have character that is unyielding and cannot be compromised. The people that are employed by this organization have exemplified those important terms—trust loyalty and character." Richard Lacks Jr.

Lacks employees proudly participate in thousands of activities in their communities. Volunteering, community outreach, beautification, sports leagues, and other company sponsored initiatives are encouraged and participated in by employees at every level.
