

Religious Awards for Protestant Scouts (Grades 6-12)

At Holy Cross Episcopal Church, 40700 West 10 Mile Road, Novi MI 48375

The P.R.A.Y. Program is a religious education curriculum for youth in Protestant and Independent Churches that incorporates service projects and Bible study. Youth who complete one of the P.R.A.Y. programs are eligible to receive a medallion and to be recognized for their achievement within their home congregation. The P.R.A.Y. awards have been approved for wear on the official uniforms of Scouting America, Girl Scouts of the U.S.A., and American Heritage Girls.

If you're not sure if your denomination participates in the P.R.A.Y. program, please check here: <https://www.praypub.org/denominations>

God and Life is the Protestant Religious Emblem curriculum for youth in grades 9 through 12. The workbook follows the life and vocation of the Apostle Paul. Youth will be asked to reflect on their personal calling and how they wish to live their lives. The program involves five significant service projects. One project is 90 consecutive days of independent Bible study, and another project involves assisting with a P.R.A.Y. class for younger children.

Schedule of six classes:

- God & Life high school scouts, Sun., Nov. 3, 12:30-2pm
- God & Life high school scouts, Sun., Nov. 10, 12:30-2pm
- God & Life high school scouts, Sun., Nov. 17, 12:30-2pm
- God & Life high school scouts, Sun., Jan. 5, 12:30-2pm
- God & Life high school scouts, Sun., Jan. 12, 12:30-2pm
- God & Life high school scouts, Sun., Jan. 19, 12:30-2pm

God and Church is the Protestant Religious Emblem curriculum for youth in grades 6 through 8. The workbook focuses on building a close relationship with Christ through words and actions. There are three major service projects, as well as smaller creative projects in each lesson. One of the larger projects is 21 consecutive days of independent Bible study, and another project is to learn how different congregations worship God.

Schedule of six classes:

- God & Church middle school scouts, Sun., Dec. 1, 12:30-2pm
- God & Church middle school scouts, Sun., Dec. 8, 12:30-2pm
- God & Church middle school scouts, Sun., Dec. 15, 12:30-2pm
- God & Church middle school scouts, Sun., Feb. 2, 12:30-2pm
- God & Church middle school scouts, Sun., Feb. 9, 12:30-2pm
- God & Church middle school scouts, Sun., Feb. 23, 12:30-2pm

These schedules have been planned so that youth will be able to complete all service projects and receive awards either at Holy Cross or at their home congregations in early March 2025.
