WHAT I AM REALLY GOOD AT OR MOST VALUABLE THING ABOUT ME AT WORK

I feel I treat everyone equally and I’m open/accepting of all people and opinions. In quick office poll, others said: realist; relatable; has managerial courage; trustworthy; approachable; likeable; always helpful; creative; listener; coach/guide; encourager.

MY COMMUNICATION PREFERENCES

Phone call if immediate attention is needed; email or text if not timely.

HOW I LIKE TO BE RECOGNIZED AT WORK

A verbal shoutout is good with me; or maybe a cookie or donut.

MY PERSONAL VISION AND MISSION STATEMENT

Be a respected profession Scout making an impact on the lives of youth through the Scouting America program. In other words: Change the World, One Scout at a Time.

MY HOME LIFE

IMPORTANT PEOPLE/PETS IN MY LIFE

Deb, my wife of 33 years. She’s my world, my reason for every day.
Connor and Griffin, out two sons, both Eagle Scouts, and not successful adults out on their own.
Vivian, a 2-year-old Great Dane, who keep me off the couch and has been my saving grace in the wake losing Franklin, who passed June 10, 2024, at 6.5 years old. Vivian is a robust but petite Dane, who loves playing fetch and love playing with the neighbors. Franklin was also a Great Dane, with a heart and personality of a giant. He was one of the fastest males in the country and LOVED playing catch with a frisbee and visiting friends at the dog park. He was “lucky” Number 7 (dog) in my life. He was the dog I always dreamed having, and one I’m still mourning today.

Wedding Anniversary: October 17, 1992

WHAT I AM REALLY GOOD AT OR MOST VALUABLE THING ABOUT ME AT HOME

I’m present, at least I think I am. When I’m home, it’s family time, not work time.
